KNOW YOUR RIGHTS AT PROTESTS AND RALLIES

DURING THE PROTEST

To protect yourself and others,

- Be careful posting on social media
 - If you do, be mindful that law enforcement can use any pictures you post to identify people
- Consider wearing a mask for security and safety
- Consider turning off your phone
 - If you need to stay in contact with groups and others, you can decide to keep your phone on
- Keep in mind that the police can use facial recognition to unlock your phone, but cannot require you to type your pin or password
- Consider using encrypted apps such as Signal
- Remember you have the right not to talk to the police or give them any identifying information
